THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 28th March 1857, and was referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 1st of June next :—

A Bill to make better provision for the order and good government of the Suburbs of Calcutta and of the Station of Howrah.

WHEREAS Acts have been passed for regulating the Police and for the Conservancy and improvement of the Town of Calcutta and of the other Presidency Towns; and whereas large portions of the Suburbs of the said Town of Calcutta and of the Station of Howrah are not less populous than parts of the said Town, and it will conduce to the order and good government of the said Suburbs and Station that some of the provisions of the said Acts, with certain necessary modifications, should be extended to the said Suburbs and Station: It is enacted as follows :—

I. Whoever is charged with having committed any of the offences mentioned in this Act within the limits of the said Suburbs or Station, as described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, may be tried for any such offence by the Magistrate within whose jurisdiction the offence is alleged to have been committed, and on conviction, may be sentenced by such Magistrate to the punishment hereinafter prescribed for the offence.

II. Clause 1.—Whoever has in his possession, or conveys in any manner, any thing which may be reasonably suspected of being stolen or fraudulently obtained, shall, if he fail to account satisfactorily how he came by the same, be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding three months.

Clause 2.—If any person charged with having or conveying any thing stolen or fraudulently obtained, shall declare that he received the same from some other person, or that he was employed as a carrier, agent, or servant, to convey the same for some other person, the Magistrate may cause every such other person, and also, if necessary, every former or pretended purchaser, or other person through whose possession the same shall have passed (provided that such other person shall be alleged to have had possession of the same within the jurisdiction of such Magistrate,) to be brought before him and examined, and shall examine witnesses touching the same; and if it appear to such Magistrate that any person so brought before him had possession of such thing, and had reasonable cause to believe the same to have been stolen or unlawfully obtained, such person shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding three months.

III. Any person found between sun-set and sun-rise, armed with any dangerous or offensive instrument whatsoever, with intent to commit any offence against the person or property of another; any reputed thief found between sun-set and sun-rise, on board any vessel or boat, or lying or loitering in any bazar, street, road, yard, thoroughfare, or other place, who shall not give a satisfactory account of himself; any person found between sun-set and sun-rise, having his face covered, or otherwise disguised, with intent to commit any such offence as aforesaid; any person found between sun-set and sun-rise, in any dwelling house or other building whatsoever, without being able satisfactorily to account for his presence therein; and any person having in his possession, without lawful excuse (the proof of which excuse shall be on such person,) any implement of house-breaking, shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding three months; and any such person may be taken into custody by any Police Officer without a warrant.

Provided always, that any such person shall be at liberty to apply to the Magistrate, from time to time, for a reduction of such monthly allowance, on proof of an alteration in the circumstances of himself, his wife, or child, justifying such reduction.

VI. Whoever wilfully harbours or conceals any seaman or apprentice belonging to a merchant vessel, knowing, or having reason to believe, such seaman or apprentice to be a deserter, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees.

Fort William, 27th March 1857.

No. 470 of 1857.—The 19th Regiment of Native Infantry has been brought to the Head Quarters of the Presidency Division, to receive in the presence of the Troops there assembled, the decision of the Governor General in Council upon the offence of which it has been guilty.

On the 26th of February, the 19th Regiment Native Infantry was ordered to parade on the following morning for exercise, with fifteen rounds of blank ammunition for each man.

The only blank ammunition in store was some which had been made up by the 7th Regiment Native Infantry, the Regiment preceding the 19th Regiment at Berhampore, and which had been left at that Station on the departure of the 7th Regiment. This ammunition had been used by the Recruits of the 19th Regiment up to the date above mentioned.

When the quantity of ammunition required for the following morning was taken to the lines, it appears that the men objected to the paper of which the cartridges were made, as being of two colors; and when the Pay Havildars assembled the men to issue the percussion caps, they refused to receive them, saying that they had doubts about the cartridges.

The men have since stated, in a petition addressed to the Major General Commanding the Presidency Division, that, for more than two months, they had heard rumours of new cartridges having been made at Calcutta, on the paper of which the fat of bullocks and pigs had been spread, and of its being the intention of the Government to coerce the men to bite these cartridges; and that therefore they were afraid for their religion. They admit that assurance given to them by the Colonel of their Regiment satisfied them that this would not be the case; adding, nevertheless, that when, on the 26th of February, they perceived the cartridges to be of two kinds, they were convinced that one kind was greased, and therefore refused them.

The Commanding Officer, on hearing of the refusal, went to the lines, assembled the Native Commissioned and Non-Commissioned Officers, and explained that the cartridges were unobjectionable, and had been left at Berhampore by the 7th Regiment. He instructed them to inform their men, that the cartridges would be served out in the morning by the Officers Commanding Companies, and that any man who refused to take them would be tried by a Court Martial and punished.

This occurred at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Between 10 and 11 o'clock a rush was made by the Sepoys to the bells of arms; the doors were forced open; the men took possession of their arms and accoutrements, and carried them to their lines.

On learning what had occurred, Lieutenant-Colonel Mitchell ordered out the 11th Regiment of Irregular Cavalry and the Post Guns.

When the Cavalry reached the parade, the men of the 19th Regiment rushed out of their lines with their arms shouting, and assembled near to the bells of arms, where many loaded their muskets.

Upon Lieutenant-Colonel Mitchell and the European Officers approaching the men, they were warned not to go on, or the men would fire.

The Native Officers were assembled, and Lieutenant-Colonel Mitchell, after addressing the men, directed the Officers to separate the Companies, and to require them to give up their arms. The men hesitated at first, but eventually gave up their arms and retired to their lines.

These are the principal features of the outbreak at Berhampore on the 26th of February.

The men of the 19th Regiment have refused obedience to their European Officers. They have seized arms with violence. They have assembled, in a body, to resist the authority of their Commander.

The Regiment has been guilty of open and defiant mutiny.

It is no excuse for this offence to say, as has been said in the before-mentioned Petition of the Native Officers and men of the Regiment, that they were afraid for their religion, and that they apprehended violence to themselves.

It is no atonement of it to declare, as they have therein declared, that they are ready to fight for their Government in the field, when they have disobeyed and insulted that Government in the persons of its Officers, and have expressed no contrition for their heavy offences.

Neither the 19th Regiment, nor any Regiment in the Service of the Government of India, nor any Sepoy, Hindoo or Mussulman, has reason to pretend that the Government has shown, directly or indirectly, a desire to interfere with the religion of its Troops. It has been the unvarying rule of the Government of India to treat the religious feelings of all its Servants, of every creed, with careful respect; and to representations or complaints put forward in a dutiful and becoming spirit, whether upon this, or upon any other subject, it has never turned a deaf ear.

But the Government of India expects to receive, in return for this treatment, the confidence of those who serve it.

From its Soldiers, of every rank and race, it will, at all times, and in all circumstances, enforce unhesitating obedience. They have sworn to give it, and the Governor General in Council never cease to exact it. To no men who prefer complaints with arms in their hands will he ever listen.

Had the Sepoys of the 19th Regiment confided in their Government, and believed their Commanding Officer, instead of crediting the idle stories with which false and evil-minded men have deceived them, their religious scruples would still have remained inviolate, and themselves would still be, as they have hitherto been, faithful Soldiers, trusted by the State, and laying up for future years all the rewards of a long and honorable service.

But the Governor General in Council can no longer have any confidence in this Regiment, which has disgraced its name, and has lost all claim to consideration and indulgence.

It is therefore the order of the Governor General in Council, that the 19th Regiment Native Infantry be now disbanded; that the Native Commissioned and Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates be discharged from the Army of Bengal; that this be done at the Head Quarters of the Presidency Division in the presence of every available Corps within two days' march of the Station; that the Regiment be paraded for the purpose; and that each man, after being deprived of his arms, shall receive his arrears of pay and be required to withdraw from the Cantonment.

The European Officers of the Regiment will remain at Barrackpore until orders for their disposal shall be received from His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

This Order is to be read at the head of every Regiment, Troop, and Company in the Service.
